She has also enjoyed directing Annie; Seussical The Musical; Jesus Christ Superstar; Pinocchio; Happily Ever After and That's How We Roll. Cami has a great passion for the technical side of dance and has been invited to Belarus on multitude of occasions to teach, choreograph and perform. She continues her passion in the states through private lessons and her own performing arts company, CoLevity, together they keep it light. “We can’t change the world, but we can change your mood.”

LINDA ZIRK is incredibly blessed to return to Barlow to assist with the production of Joseph after helping with Anything Goes last year. Kids have always been important. As a wife, mother, and grandmother it is important to her to pour into others. She has worked as a middle school humanities and drama teacher, children’s pastor, and loves being a volunteer. Hanging out with the talented kids of this cast and crew invigorates Linda and gives her hope for the future.

A Note from Mr. Schroeder...

When I was 19 I had the privilege of playing the title role in Joseph And The Amazing Technicolored at Portland State University. I automatically fell in love with the show. I have never had so much in a musical before. Joseph is one the best examples of musical theatre storytelling. Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice brilliantly bring Joseph and his coat alive through various genres of music and charismatic characters and lyrics. My vision of this production was to simply tell that story making every morsel as rich and engaging as the next moment. I had an irresistible cast and production team that capably engaged this vision. This has truly been an “amazing” experience to direct and produce Joseph. We have loved our journey... enjoy our product!
